Dear Technology Entrepreneurship Part 2 Participants,

Congratulations on finishing Part 2 of the course! We went through the material and assignments at a pretty rapid pace. However, you're now equipped with the basic frameworks and steps that you'll need to create new ventures or new product lines within larger companies.

Part 1 of the course will start up again Sept. 15th. I would encourage you all to sign up as mentors for the new batch of students. I promise you'll learn as much or more from mentoring as from taking the course itself.

Thanks once again to Spike and Yoni for all of their help with the course, to all of the mentors for your help, and to all of you for the hard work that you put into the class!

Good luck in the future with all of your ventures!

Best,

Chuck Eesley
