Hi Will,

This is my first attempt at doing this - Amber did it for us for FicRec and I was just a contributor. I do not yet know how she decorated the background, etc, but here is an attempt at sharing some questions for friends/family as potential subscribers, and customer/advertisers as customers. Please let me know what you like, do not like, what you would change, etc, and I'll modify it and share again, until it is what we want.

Please review/revise/etc and I'll edit it and share with 6? or 12? friends/family and also 6? or 12? customer/advertisers.

Also, in regard to this week's videos, I'll make sure those are completed by Wed. afternoon, so I'm better prepared to talk. However, in regard to last week's videos, this part 2 assignment on marketing and the analysis, I'm ready to talk by email or phone before then, in regard to this you tube video link in the survey with questions to gather the results, etc, as you said, to friends/family as possible subscribers or direct contact with 6-12 customer advertisers. With Amber, I did post our link to my FaceBook account, but given the total number of responses we had was 24-25, I'm not sure how many people connected to me actually responded (can't tell from the survey results). So I will email it directly. I tried that last time too, and still, very few people responded to us actually, but we worked with what we had.

Thanks,
Karen
